

Supra

"that from & after the 29th day of September in the year of our Lord 1732 the houses, lands, negroes & other heredit. & real estate situate or being within any of the ^{said} plantations belonging to any person indebted, shall be liable to & chargeable with any just duties & demands of what kind or nature soever, owing by such person to his Majesty or any of his subjects, & shall & may be applied for the satisfaction thereof, & shall be subject to the like remedies & process in any Court of Law in any of the sd. plantations respectively, for seizing, executing, selling or disposing of any such houses, lands, negroes, & other heredit. & real estate, towards the satisfaction of such debts, duties & demands, & in like manner as personal estates in any of the said Plantations, respectively, are seized, executed, sold, or disposed of for the satisfaction of debts," as in & by the said Act, relation being thereto had may more fully & at large appear. And Whereas a writ of fieri facias issuing out of his Majesty's Superior Court of Justice held at Westminster, for the District of Wilmington, & returnable to the said Court on the 15th day of April in the fourth year of his Majesty's reign, was directed & delivered to the said Sheriff, commanding him to cause to be made of the goods & chattels, lands & tenements of Richard Carroll of Cumberland County, merchant otherwise called Richard Carroll of Wilmington in North Carolina the sum of One hundred & six pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania, which lately before the Chief Justice & his Associate Justice of the said Court at Wilmington Joseph Wilbourn recovered, as well for his debt as for his damages sustained by reason of the detention of that debt, also four pounds thirteen shillings costs of suit, to the said Joseph in the same Court, adjudged, whereof the said Richard is convicted, as to us appears of record. And Whereas the said Richard Carroll was then seized & possessed in his demesne as of fee, of, in & to a certain house at Crook Creek, in the said County, commonly called Carroll's Store, with one third of half an acre of land, with the appurtenances. And Whereas the said Sheriff in pursuance of the said writ of fieri facias, & the before, in part, recited Act of Parliament, did seize & take into his hands & possession the said house & land with the appurtenances thereto belonging, situate, lying & being as aforesaid, & after levying the said writ of fieri facias upon the said house & land, & due advertisement thereof made according to law, the said Isaiah Parrish, Sheriff of Cumberland County aforesaid, on the 13th day of March in the year of our Lord 1764, caused the said house & one third part of half an acre of land with the appurtenances to be put up at public sale to the highest bidder at Cumberland County aforesaid, at which time & place the said John Brownlow became the last & highest bidder at the sum of Twenty one pounds Proce. money for the aforesaid Store house & the third part of half an acre of land with the appurtenances. Now this Certificate I believe that
